FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF MISSOURI

Phoenix Entertainment Partners, LLC,

Plaintiff,

v.

Happy Hours, LLC d/b/a The Brew House and Michael Sean Whitaker d/b/a Karaoke
Mike Productions,

Defendants.

Case No. 4:17-cv-1304

COMPLAINT

The Plaintiff, Phoenix Entertainment Partners, LLC (“Phoenix”), by its counsel, complains of the Defendants, and for its Complaint alleges as follows:

JURISDICTION OF THE COURT

1. This is an action for trademark infringement and for related state-law claims in which the Defendants stand accused of using Phoenix’s federally registered service marks without authorization in the course of providing commercial karaoke entertainment services and related ancillary services.

2. This action arises under §§ 32 and 43 of the Trademark Act of 1946, 15 U.S.C. §§ 1114 and 1125, as amended. This Court has exclusive jurisdiction over the subject matter of this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1331, in that this is a civil action arising under the laws of the United States.

3. This Court further has jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1338(a), in that this civil action arises under acts of Congress relating to trademarks, and, as to the Plaintiff’s federal

1 unfair competition claim, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1338(b), in that the claim is joined with a
2 substantial and related claim under the trademark laws of the United States.

3 4. This Court has supplemental jurisdiction over the subject matter of Phoenix's
4 state law claims pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1367(a), in that the claims are so related to Phoenix's
5 federal claims that they form part of the same case or controversy.

6 5. Venue is proper in this judicial district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b), because 7 all of the Defendants reside in this State and judicial district.

8 6. This Court has personal jurisdiction over each of the Defendants, based upon the 9 Defendants' residence in this State and judicial district and conduct of significant business here,
10 and in that the acts of which the Defendants stand accused were undertaken in this State and 11 judicial district.
12

14 THE PLAINTIFF

15 7. Phoenix is a North Carolina limited liability company having its principal place
16 of business in Pineville, North Carolina.
17

19 THE DEFENDANTS

20 8. Defendant Michael Sean Whitaker ("Whitaker") d/b/a Karaoke Mike Productions
21 is a Missouri resident, who operates the equipment and provides karaoke-related services.

22 9. Defendant Happy Hours, LLC ("Happy") is a Missouri limited liability company
23 that operates an eating and drinking establishment under the trade name The Brew House in St.
24 Louis, Missouri, at which karaoke entertainment services are provided.
25

27 BACKGROUND FACTS

28 10. Karaoke is a popular form of participatory entertainment commonly found in

1 bars and restaurants and other types of venues throughout the United States.

2 11. The basic premise of a karaoke show is that the venue hosting the show provides
3 patrons with access to a sound system and specially prepared karaoke accompaniment tracks, so
4 that individual patrons may perform for the crowd.

5 12. Generally, a “karaoke accompaniment track” is an audiovisual work comprising
6 a re-recorded version of a popular song without the lead vocals synchronized to a graphical
7 component containing a lyric display, cueing information, and other information.

8 13. When a karaoke accompaniment track is publicly performed, the graphical 9 component is displayed to the patron who is performing and may be displayed to the crowd as 10 well.

11 14. Venues that offer karaoke entertainment, including Happy, do so as part of a 12 commercial transaction wherein the venues supply their patrons with karaoke entertainment 13 services in exchange for their patronage of the establishment and the purchase of food and 14 beverages.
15

16 15. The purchase and consumption of alcoholic beverages in connection with 17 karaoke shows is particularly encouraged to enable patrons to overcome inhibitions against 18 singing in public.
19

20 16. Most venues that offer karaoke entertainment, including Happy, hire mobile
21 entertainment operators, such as Whitaker, to provide the karaoke entertainment services on the 22 venues’ behalf.
23

24 17. Phoenix is the owner of SOUND CHOICE, a leading brand of karaoke
25 accompaniment tracks that is particularly well known to commercial karaoke operations
26 including bars, restaurants, and other venues as described above.

27 18. Phoenix also licenses the use of its SOUND CHOICE brand to commercial
28 karaoke operators and venues in connection with karaoke entertainment services.

1 19. Over the course of nearly three decades in business, Slep-Tone Entertainment
2 Corporation (“Slep-Tone”), Phoenix’s predecessor-in-interest, re-recorded and released more
3 than 16,500 SOUND CHOICE-branded popular songs on special compact discs known as 4 CD+G (“compact disc plus graphics”) discs and, more recently, a subset of that catalog in 5 another common karaoke format, MP3+G (“MP3 plus graphics”) on compact discs.

6 20. SOUND CHOICE-branded karaoke tracks are wildly popular among karaoke
7 entertainment providers, patrons, and home consumers. According to some estimates, as 8 corroborated by investigative data, more than half of all accompaniment tracks played at 9 karaoke shows in the United States originated from Slep-Tone’s recordings.

11 21. The popularity of SOUND CHOICE karaoke tracks derives from the market’s
12 perception that the recordings are usually the most faithful to the sound of the original recording
13 artist and as providing the most accurate singing cues as part of the video display,
14 characteristics that are highly valued by karaoke singers.

15 22. Likewise, the association of the SOUND CHOICE brand with a mobile
16 entertainment operator’s karaoke business and/or with a venue’s karaoke entertainment 17 offerings confers on the operator and venue a perception in the marketplace—and among 18 karaoke patrons—of legitimacy and professionalism.

19
21 THE RIGHTS OF THE PLAINTIFF
22

23 23. Phoenix is the owner of the federal service mark registrations listed in Annex A
24 hereto (“the Sound Choice Marks”), by virtue of an assignment instrument from Slep-Tone
25 dated February 15, 2015.

26 24. Slep-Tone acquired its rights in the Sound Choice Marks by virtue of its 27 registrations based on use of the marks in commerce in connection with the advertising and 28

1 performance of karaoke entertainment services, either directly or by related companies that
2 include hundreds of controlled licensees.

3 25. Phoenix is also the sole member of Sound Choice Entertainment, LLC, a Texas
4 limited liability company (“SCE”) that is directly engaged in the business of providing karaoke
5 entertainment services to venues in various locations around the United States.

6 26. Phoenix and its predecessor have, for the entire time the Sound Choice Marks
7 have been federally registered, provided the public, including the Defendants, with notice of 8 those federal registrations through the consistent application of the symbol ® to its marks in 9 connection with services, when and where appropriate.

10 27. The Sound Choice Marks are indicators of Phoenix as the origin of karaoke
11 entertainment services provided in connection with the Sound Choice Marks.

12 THE ACTIVITIES OF THE DEFENDANTS

13 A. The Defendants’ Use in Commerce of the Sound Choice Marks

14 28. Defendant Happy hosts karaoke shows comprising karaoke entertainment
15 services at their establishment.

16 29. Upon information and belief, Defendant Happy contracted with third-party
17 operator Whitaker as its agent to supply karaoke entertainment services to Happy's patrons.

18 30. Upon information and belief, Defendants Whitaker and Happy advertised the 19 availability of karaoke entertainment services at Happy's venue at specific times, in order to 20 inform potential patrons of the services and to encourage those potential patrons to visit Happy's
21 venue at those times.

22 31. In order to supply karaoke entertainment services to a venue such as Happy,
23 Defendant Whitaker prepares and executes a karaoke show by acquiring, or acquiring access to,
24 appropriate sound equipment for playing karaoke accompaniment tracks; connecting the sound
25

1 equipment to a source for karaoke accompaniment tracks; causing selected karaoke
2 accompaniment tracks to be played over the sound equipment; controlling the organization and
3 flow of the performances; encouraging Happy's patrons to purchase food and/or beverages and 4 tip their servers and acting as the on-microphone emcee of the show.

5 32. As Defendants Whitaker and Happy supplied Happy's patrons with karaoke
6 entertainment services, the Defendants caused and/or permitted the Sound Choice Marks to be 7 displayed repeatedly and frequently in connection with the services.

9 33. The Sound Choice Marks as displayed in connection with those services are 10 identical to the marks for which Phoenix has obtained federal service mark registrations, for the 11 identical services for which those registrations were issued.

12 34. Because of the well-known association of the Sound Choice Marks with karaoke
13 entertainment services, the display of the Sound Choice Marks in connection with the services, 14 regardless of the particular song being played, acts as a general advertisement for the services as 15 well as an indicator of the quality of the services being provided.
16

17 35. Because of the frequent, repeated display of the Sound Choice Marks across 18 numerous instances of widely disparate songs, patrons who received karaoke entertainment
19 services from Whitaker and Happy are likely to view the display of the Sound Choice Marks as 20 an indicator of the affiliation, connection, or association of the Defendants with Phoenix, or of 21 Phoenix's sponsorship or approval of the services and related commercial activities, rather than 22 merely as indicating Phoenix as the creator of the underlying communicative content of any 23 particular song being performed.
24

25 36. The foregoing activities undertaken in connection with the Sound Choice Marks
26 were undertaken in derogation of Phoenix's rights in the Sound Choice Marks.

27 37. The foregoing activities were and are undertaken without any form of license,
28 permission, or acquiescence from Phoenix and without any legitimate basis upon which such

1 activities could be legally undertaken.

2 38. Defendant Happy's patrons are likely to be confused regarding the origin or 3 sponsorship of the services being supplied and regarding the affiliation or connection of 4 Defendants Whitaker and Happy with Phoenix, based on their mistaken belief that the services
5 being provided are provided with Phoenix's knowledge and approval.

6 39. As a result of those activities, Phoenix has been damaged through the loss of 7 revenues associated with the sale of similar services or with a license to provide similar
8 services, as well as through the loss of Phoenix's ability to control the quality of services
9 provided in connection with the Sound Choice Marks.

10 40. The provision of the services as described above is an essential part of a 11 commercial transaction wherein the patrons purchase food and beverages and receive access to 12 the tracks and to the services in connection with their patronage, even if the patrons do not 13 directly pay for access to the tracks or the services.

14 41. When the karaoke shows are ongoing, the shows are generally the principal
15 entertainment focus of Defendant Happy's establishment.

16 42. Defendant Happy derives value from the karaoke shows in the form of increased
17 patronage and increased sales of food and beverages.

18 43. Upon information and belief, Defendant Happy has advertised the availability of 19 karaoke shows on its premises, via its own advertising apparatus and as an activity attributable
20 to its business, rather than as adjunct or auxiliary to its businesses.

21 44. Defendant Happy has had actual knowledge of the foregoing activities being 22 undertaken at its establishment.

23 45. Specifically, Defendant Happy was notified by Phoenix by a letter dated
24 November 1, 2016, of the unlicensed, infringing character of the karaoke entertainment services
25 being provided in its establishment.

1 46. In the letter, Defendant Happy was offered information about licensing and
2 compliance programs that Phoenix offers to venues that feature karaoke entertainment, along
3 with the opportunity to bring its karaoke entertainment services into compliance with the law
4 and with Phoenix's policies regarding the use of its intellectual property.

5 47. In particular, Defendant Happy was offered the opportunity, at no charge, to 6 request, via Phoenix's Safe Harbor program, that Phoenix evaluate the licensing status and 7 needs of its karaoke entertainment provider and to avoid liability as long as the venue took heed
8 of Phoenix's evaluation and acted accordingly.

9 48. Defendant Happy did not take advantage of the Safe Harbor program.

10 49. Despite these offers, and despite its knowledge of the unlicensed, infringing
11 character of the karaoke entertainment services being provided in its establishments, Defendant
12 Happy did not elect to bring its karaoke entertainment services into compliance.

13 B. The basis for imposing vicarious liability on Happy

14 50. Defendant Happy has the right to control the means and the details of the process
15 by which its third-party agents accomplish their respective tasks, including, without limitation,
16 controlling the dates and starting and stopping times of shows, determining whether particular 17 content (such as offensive-language content) is permitted to be played at shows, determining the 18 style and genre of music played at shows, and determining whether the third-party agent is 19 permitted to use Defendant Happy's equipment (such as television displays, sound equipment, 20 stage, etc.) as part of the shows.

21 51. In particular, Defendant Happy has the right to control whether or not the 22 activities occur on its premises.

23 52. As noted previously, Defendant Happy had knowledge of its agent's direct 24 infringement of the Sound Choice Marks.

25 53. Despite this knowledge, Defendant Happy continued to use Defendant Whitaker
26
27
28

1 to commit direct infringement of the Sound Choice Marks during the course of providing
2 karaoke entertainment services to its patrons.

3 54. Defendant Happy had the right and ability to supervise Whitaker's activities in its 4 establishment, including (without limitation) the right and ability to determine whether 5 Whitaker provided karaoke entertainment services in connection with the Sound Choice Marks.

6 55. Defendant Happy knew or had reason to know, based on the amounts it was 7 paying Whitaker to provide the services, its interaction with Whitaker, and its knowledge of 8 Whitaker's infringement, that Whitaker was unlikely to be able to respond for significant 9 damages for infringement.
10

11 56. The arrangement between Defendant Happy and Defendant Whitaker exploited
12 Whitaker's marginal financial condition in two ways: first, by reducing the amount Happy had 13 to pay Whitaker to provide the services in a manner that would be profitable to Whitaker; and 14 second, by attempting to allocate the burden of any claims of infringement to Whitaker, an 15 undercapitalized "dummy" operation, in a naked effort to avoid financial responsibility and 16 liability for the infringement while remaining the principal beneficiary of the infringement.
17

18 57. In short, the arrangement between Happy and Whitaker is a sham designed to 19 reap the rewards of infringement while escaping liabilities.

20 58. Despite Defendant Happy having knowledge of the infringing character of the 21 activities and the ability to control whether those activities occur, Defendant Happy elected not 22 to stop the infringement from occurring, instead continuing to enjoy the benefits of the 23 infringement.
24

25 59. As such, to the extent that it is not directly liable as an infringer, Defendant
26 Happy is vicariously liable for the continuing infringement that has occurred and is occurring on 27 its premises.
28

1 C. The Defendants' pattern of infringing conduct

2 60. The Defendants' conduct as described above with respect to the Sound Choice
3 Marks is not isolated to the use of the Sound Choice Marks, but also extends as part of a large-
4 scale program of infringing activities and piracy involving numerous other producers'
5 intellectual property rights, on the same terms.

6 61. Essentially, the Defendants, and particularly Whitaker, with Happy as the willing 7 beneficiary, have built an entire business model and moneymaking scheme premised on a 8 competitive advantage derived from the infringement of the intellectual property rights of 9 others, including Phoenix.

10 62. The Defendants' activities constitute unfair competition against Phoenix's own 11 licensees, all of whom provide karaoke entertainment services without engaging in that 12 infringement, at significant cost.

13 63. The Defendants' wrongful conduct exerts illegitimate and unfair pressure upon 14 the market for karaoke services in this State and judicial district through the unlicensed use of 15 the Sound Choice Marks in connection with those services, thereby diminishing the value of 16 licenses and permissions in the hands of Phoenix, its subsidiary, and its licensees.

17 64. The diminution of the value of licenses encourages or forces karaoke operators to 18 forego licenses in order to compete profitably.

19
21
22 FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF

23
24 TRADEMARK INFRINGEMENT UNDER 15 U.S.C. § 1114(1)

25 65. Phoenix repeats and incorporates by reference herein its allegations contained in
26 the above paragraphs of this Complaint.

27 66. Each Defendant used a reproduction, counterfeit, or copy of the Sound Choice
28 Marks in connection with the provision of services including karaoke entertainment services, by

1 repeatedly displaying the reproduction, counterfeit, or copy of the Sound Choice Marks during
2 the provision of those services and by using the Sound Choice Marks in connection with the 3 advertising of the services.

4 67. Each Defendant's use of the Sound Choice Marks was "in commerce" within the 5 meaning of the Trademark Act of 1946 as amended.

6 68. Phoenix did not license or otherwise give permission to any Defendant to use the 7 Sound Choice Marks in connection with the provision of their services.

8 69. Each Defendant's use of the Sound Choice Marks is likely to cause confusion, or 9 to cause mistake, or to deceive its customers and patrons into believing that the services being
10 provided are provided with the authorization of Phoenix.

11 70. Each Defendant's acts were willful, knowing, and intentional.

12 71. Defendant Happy, having hired third-party agent Whitaker to provide karaoke
13 entertainment services in its name, at its venue, primarily for the purpose of avoiding liability
14 for infringement, is additionally vicariously liable for the infringing acts of that agent.
15

16 72. Each Defendant's activities constitute the infringement of the federally registered
17 Sound Choice Marks in violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1114(1).
18

19 73. Phoenix has been damaged by each Defendants' infringing activities.

20 74. Unless enjoined by the Court, each Defendant's infringing activities as described
21 above will continue unabated and will continue to cause harm to Phoenix.
22

23 SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF

24 UNFAIR COMPETITION UNDER 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a)

25 75. Phoenix repeats and incorporates by reference herein its allegations contained in 26 the above paragraphs of this Complaint.
27

28 76. Each Defendant has supplied karaoke entertainment services to customers or

1 patrons, in connection with which the Sound Choice Marks were used in the advertising and
2 performance of the services and not merely as an adjunct to the playing of any particular 3 communicative content contained within karaoke accompaniment tracks.

4 77. The use of the Sound Choice Marks is likely to cause confusion, or to cause
5 mistake, or to deceive the customers or patrons into believing, falsely, that Phoenix sponsored 6 or approved the Defendants' services and commercial activities.

7 78. Because of each Defendant's wholly unauthorized uses of the Sound Choice
8 Marks in the manner described above, Phoenix was denied revenue from the sale or licensing of 9 authorized services and deprived of control over the use of the Sound Choice Marks.

10 79. Because Phoenix has been denied this revenue and control, it has been damaged
11 by each Defendant's uses.

12 80. Phoenix is a provider of karaoke entertainment services, directly, through 13 controlled licensees, and through its wholly owned subsidiary SCE.

14 81. Each Defendant's activities are part of a program and money-making scheme
15 premised upon the unlicensed use of the Sound Choice Marks in connection with karaoke 16 entertainment services and ancillary services that form part of the economic transaction among 17 Happy, Whitaker and Happy's patrons.

18 82. Each Defendant's activities in furtherance of this program of infringement have 19 caused a competitive injury to Phoenix, both directly and on the basis of damage to Phoenix's 20 licensees.

21 83. Each Defendant's activities constitute unfair competition in violation of 15
22 U.S.C. § 1125(a).

23 84. Unless enjoined by the Court, each Defendant's unfair competition activities as 24 described above will continue unabated and will continue to cause harm to Phoenix.

THIRD CLAIM FOR RELIEF

MISSOURI ANTI-DILUTION R.S.MO. § 417.061 AGAINST DEFENDANTS

85. Phoenix repeats and incorporates by reference herein its allegations contained in the above paragraphs of this Complaint.

86. The Sound Choice Marks are valid and distinctive.

87. The use of the Sound Choice Marks by the Defendants is likely to injure the business reputation and/or dilute the distinctive quality of the trademarks, and will cause irreparable damage to Phoenix in violation in R.S.Mo. § 417.061.

88. As such, Phoenix has been damaged and is likely to be further damaged by the unauthorized use of the Sound Choice Marks unless enjoined by the Court.

FOURTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF

COMMON LAW UNFAIR COMPETITION

89. Phoenix repeats and incorporates by reference herein its allegations contained in the above paragraphs of this Complaint.

90. Defendants used and knowingly directly benefited from the use of a reproduction, counterfeit, or copy of the Sound Choice Marks in connection with the provision of services including karaoke entertainment services, by displaying the reproduction, counterfeit, or copy of the Sound Choice Marks during the provision of those services.

91. Defendants' use of the Sound Choice Marks was "in commerce" within the meaning ascribed by Missouri common law.

92. Phoenix did not license Defendants to use the Sound Choice Marks in connection with the services provided to its commercial establishments.

93. Use of the Sound Choice Marks by the Defendants in connection with their karaoke entertainment services is likely to cause confusion, or to cause mistake, or to deceive

1 patrons at Happy's venue, into believing, falsely, that the services those patrons are receiving, in
2 exchange for their patronage and purchases, are bona fide services authorized by Phoenix.

3 94. Defendants' acts were willful and knowing.

4 95. Phoenix has been damaged by infringing activities of Defendants.

5 96. Unless enjoined by the Court, Defendants' infringing activities as described
6 above will continue unabated and will continue to cause harm to Phoenix.

9 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

10 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff Phoenix prays for judgment against each of the Defendants
11 severally, and that the Court:

12 A. Find that each Defendant has committed acts of infringement, including but not
13 limited to counterfeiting, of the federally registered Sound Choice Marks, in violation of 15
14 U.S.C. § 1114(1);

15 B. Find that each Defendant has engaged in unfair competition detrimental to 16 Phoenix in violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a);

17 C. Enter judgment against each Defendant and in favor of Phoenix on all applicable
18 counts;

19 D. Award to Phoenix each Defendant's profits and the damages sustained by 20 Phoenix because of that Defendant's conduct in infringing the Sound Choice Marks, or, in the 21 alternative, statutory damages per trademark infringed by counterfeiting, and in any event in an 22 amount not less than $50,000 per Defendant;

23 E. Award to Phoenix each Defendant's profits and the damages sustained by 24 Phoenix because of that Defendant's acts of unfair competition under 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a);

25 F. Award to Phoenix treble, punitive, or otherwise enhanced damages, as available,
26 upon a finding that any Defendant acted willfully in the conduct of its infringement;

27 G. Order that all computer disks, drives, or other media belonging to Defendant
28 Whitaker, which media enable that Defendant to engage in infringement as described herein, to

1 be delivered up or seized for destruction;

2 H. Grant Phoenix preliminary and permanent injunctive relief against further
3 infringement of the Sound Choice Marks and further false designations of origin, by each
4 Defendant, specifically including injunctive relief against the making, copying, sharing, selling,
5 or otherwise using digitized copies of karaoke accompaniment tracks, commercially or 6 otherwise, which tracks are marked with any mark or other designation belonging to any party
7 from whom the Defendant has not obtained written authorization from the owner thereof to 8 make, copy, share, sell, or otherwise use the digitized copy, such copies acting to enable the 9 Defendant to engage in service mark infringement, unfair competition, and deceptive trade
10 practices;

11 I. Award Phoenix its costs of suit and attorney's fees, to the extent not awarded 12 above; and

13 J. Grant Phoenix such other and further relief as justice may require.
